

GlobalMarket Sourcing Salon

GlobalMarket Group is an international trade marketing corporation. The company is committed to establishing the GMC (Global Manufacturer Certificate Community, where qualified Chinese manufacturers are incorporated and able to stand out among the rest. By attending global exhibitions, offering eMarketing and providing sourcing solutions, GlobalMarket bridges the gap between global buyers and GMC manufacturers.

Founded in 1995, GlobalMarket is headquartered in Guangzhou, China, with more than 30 field offices and a staff of 1,000.

- Merged with a Hong Kong-listed B2B company, TRADEeasy.com, and a famous B2B company, Marketplace, GlobalMarket's partnerships are an asset to participating companies.
- In 2008, GlobalMarket gained joint investment of $30 Million from Jafco Ventures as well as with other leading venture capitals.
- Since June 2010, Yao Ming and the National Basketball Team have promoted GMC and its benefits to the world.
- The GMC Hall at the World Expo 2010 in Shanghai highlights GlobalMarket's dedication to an ever-increasing global business platform.

Cooperating manufacturers include Haier, Midea, Galanz, Changhong, Chigo, Supor, COBY, JMA Aluminum and Kinwai Furniture.

Key Buyer members include Home Depot, Carrefour, Auchan, Wal-Mart, Walt Disney, Kingfisher, TestRite, 360 Sourcing, RadioShack and Itochu.

GlobalMarket Group hosts sourcing salon in relevant industry centers, enabling buyers to effectively approach more manufacturers all under the same roof.

During Shunde Expo 2010, GlobalMarket Group will arrange a sourcing salon, inviting high-quality GMC manufacturers. This professional sourcing event will bring you a great opportunity to meet your target manufacturers and potential supplier partners in South China Region. We will pre-match your target manufacturers and arrange sourcing meeting for further communication. The Sourcing Salon meeting room is on the second floor right beside the main entrance of the Shunde Exhibition Centre.
